The story of love, renunciation and spiritual awakening

Produced By

Jain Associations of North America (JAINA)
A Presentation of JAINA

In Association with
Jain Society of Metropolitan Chicago
23rd Jaina Convention Chicago, IL
July 3, 2025

Set in the majestic era of Bhagwan Mahāvīr, this is a poignant tale of love, passion, sacrifice, and spiritual awakening. Stulibhadra, a gifted musician and son of Mahāmantri Shaktāl of Magadha, is drawn into the world of royal court dancer Koshā through the soulful melodies of his Sitār. What begins as a tale of romance soon takes a profound turn when tragedy strikes, and Stulibhadra, shaken by the loss of his father, renounces the world to embrace the path of spiritual liberation.

Presentation
In Association with
Jain Society of Metropolitan Chicago

23rd JAINA Convention Chicago, IL
July 4th, 2025

What begins as a frantic attempt to complete a forgotten school project turns into a profound journey of the soul. Maahi and Anand — bright, spirited, and a little absent-minded — have just three days to explore the depths of Jain history. But as they immerse themselves in forgotten scriptures and sacred stories, they are drawn into the timeless power of Bhakti

In the quiet presence of the Guru, Maahi and Anand discover that the journey becomes the path to their own inner transformation.
